28th April 2020

Dear parents, carers and autonomous learners

You will be pleased to know that starting from next week, teachers will be writing a letter to their class. Letters will be on the website, with a photograph of your classroom! While home is your temporary classroom, it will be a delight for you to see your Parkhill Junior classroom again. Many people say that the world is just one big classroom. Of course it is!

Also, coming up soon, will be a recording of your teachers reading a story to you. You will be able to sit back, relax and enjoy. Each teacher will dedicate their story to their individual class. Cannot wait!

The excitement doesn't stop there! But it is over to you, now...hurrah.

The 'One and only Ordinary Book that opens for Extraordinary Work' has been closed for far too long.

(Ms Sprenger blew the dust off it, this morning!)

We know that the children are working incredibly hard at home, to keep up with their online learning. So, if you feel that you have completed something particularly outstanding, we ask you to upload it onto our Dropbox account. From there, we will be showcasing some of the best pieces of work, on the school website. As usual, the high Parkhill standard applies, so ensure your handwriting is neat and your spelling and grammar are up to scratch. We look forward to seeing your wonderful work!

Once again, for as long as this important lock-down continues, you must keep your brain and body active. You must keep yourself safe. We can see that most, if not all of you, are accessing the school website daily. We were very pleased to hear that other schools are using our online learning resources too! Please keep checking our website. It provides you with an update or message, daily. Today we have posted another video communication. Each day, a new recording will provide a message from your individual teachers. Today, it is myself! Juggling, after a fashion.

Please contact us if you need any help and we will do our best to assist, or to signpost you to a place where you can be helped. It is important that you remember, the Parkhill Junior Team are thinking of you. Use the admin email or call the school. All contact details are on the website. There are several links below that you might find useful.

Best wishes and stay safe.
