

Year 6: Learning at home: Week beginning 13th April 2020

This week, we are asking you to be more creative and the activities below are based on different subjects. Look at the different activities below. Over the week, please complete at least two or three of these activities a day. Colour in the box once completed.

Enjoy Learning!

This writing competition has a deadline of April 30th. Use this website: https://Youngwriters.com to create a wild and weird story all of your own. Feel free to submit it, with parental permission as well.	Oh No! The virus has destroyed all of our numbers! Can you create a new number system? Be sure to explain and give explanations for others to be able to use your system. How does your system work in terms of the four different operations? Can you demonstrate it?	30 Day drawing challenge 1: Draw an animal you have never drawn before	30 Day drawing challenge2: Draw something mythological.
Create a fact file showing what happened during 1 year (of your choice) of WWII	Watch this link and try and do the full 30minute session if you can. Otherwise do at least 15 minutes: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X655B4lSakg After completing this activity reflect on how this made you feel.	WWII saw a huge change in women's roles, especially in terms of working opportunities. Role traditionally available only to men were opened up to women. Research what types of jobs were made available for women, usually for the very first time.	If you have researched the role of women in WWII, now write a diary entry from the perspective of a woman who is now able to work in one of the new areas of employment. Consider: What is the new job. How is it different to your previous lifestyle? How are the men in your family reacting? What are your hopes for your life when the war is over?
Free writing: Tell the story: She was sure this was where he had disappeared. 	Research what it is like for people to live in the polar regions. What is life like. Do they live there all of the time? What challenges do they face? How is their life different to yours? Watch this video to help you. Polar Regions Then plan a 4 week expedition. What will you need to go take with you? Remember there are no shops or amazon deliveries so you need to take everything you will need. You are allowed 2 luxury items. Choose carefully.	Free Writing: 	Look at images from the Artist David Hockney:  Create your own landscape drawing using only pencil.