

VE Day

On Friday 8th May, it will be the 75th anniversary of VE (Victory in Europe) Day. This marks 75 years since the end of the second World War in Europe, on 8th May 1945. Below is a timetable for the day including some of the nationwide events taking place to celebrate VE Day (see shaded boxes). You will also see some of your usual home learning activities to complete.

8:30am	Wake up and get ready for day
9:00am	Start your day with doing something active e.g. follow a Joe Wicks PE video , follow a ' Justdance ' routine or a Cosmic Yoga video
9:30am	Maths – Start with doing 15 minutes of Times Tables Rockstar, then use the grid to find your activity for the day and finish the lesson with a quiz.
10:30am	Have a break. Eat some fruit or make yourself a healthy snack. You could also watch Newsround and think about what Rights Respecting articles come to mind whilst you are watching.
11:00am	2-minute national silence to remember the declaration of victory and the end of the Second World War in Europe.
11:05am	Read through the task sheet (click here) and complete the 'VE Day' activity set for you. Watch the BBC bitesize video and listen to the podcast to help you understand why today is being celebrated. You can find the links under the tab, 'Week beginning: 4 th May 2020'.
12:00pm	Have a healthy and nutritious lunch
1:00pm	Prepare, make, and enjoy a delicious, traditional afternoon tea with your family. You could make some cupcakes, some scones (with jam) or maybe some sandwiches. Use the links below if you wish! Scones Cupcakes Lemon Slices Victoria Sponge You could also make some bunting to hang up in your windows.
2:45pm – 3:45pm	Watch the first of two special BBC One programmes to mark VE75. This will include Sir Winston Churchill's Victory Speech from 1945.
