These pictures provide a clue to this week's article.

How do these pictures help you? Can you guess how they are linked together?

Write down your thoughts or discuss with someone in your house.

DID YOU GET IT RIGHT?

RESPECT FOR
CHILDREN'S VIEWS

Article 12 – Respect for the views of the child

Every child has the right to express their views, feelings and wishes in all matters affecting them, and to have their views considered and taken seriously.

This right applies at all times, for example during immigration proceedings, housing decisions or the child's day-to-day home life.

ACTIVITY TIME

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO BE HEARD?

12

RESPECT FOR
CHILDREN'S VIEWS

What sort of things
need to happen if you are to get your voice heard properly?

What would help you?
What should adults
do?

Write them down
and then compare your answers with the next slide.

HOW MANY OF THESE DID YOU GET?

- Being properly listened to
- Information about the situation so that you can comment properly
- Help to communicate your ideas if you need it
- An invitation or opportunity to give your views in a way that works for you
- Feed-back so that you know your views have been heard
- Feeling that your voice counts
- Trusting that you can speak honestly even if your opinion is different from many others
- Believing that your opinion is welcome and respected

REFLECTION

Spend a few minutes thinking about these questions.

- How does it feel when you know that an adult has really listened to you?
- How can we show our appreciation and why is this important?
- How can we respect other people's right to have their voice heard? Even when we disagree?
- Ask yourself – what could I do to make my voice stronger? What should I really speak up about? How can I do this?

Talk to people in your home.
