EXTRA

The story in a play is told through the words the characters say. Their words are set out in a special way. Copy this playscript into your book.

SHAKESPEARE: We are building our new theatre by the Thames in Southwark.

JOHN: What will you call the theatre?

SHAKESPEARE: The Globe.

EXTENSION

Copy this play extract into your book. Remember to use capital letters for the scene and the character's name.

SCENE 1 London. A street.

Capital letters are as tall as ascenders.

GLOUCESTER:
Now is the winter of our discontent
Made glorious summer by this sun of York;
And all the clouds that lour'd over our house
In the deep bosom of the ocean buried.

From 'Richard III' (Act 1, scene 1) by William Shakespeare
