

Activities for 8-10s

WB: 22.6.20: I can continue to add to my online safety booklet.

I can explain how to stay safe online

I understand the difference between positive and negative attention.

Continue this work in your Online safety booklet.

Answer your questions and do any activities in your booklet. Keep safe Parkhill!

Remember- Please use children friendly search engines, ask your parents to help, and Always report or tell someone if you are not sure about things you see online.

Activity 1: Types of attention.

Not everyone is nice online. But just like in person, you should not be made to feel upset or worried about something you read or see online. Some people say or do things just to get attention. It is not always nice.

- What does the word attention mean?
 - Can you write a definition?
- What is getting good attention?
 - Write a definition and give examples.
- What is getting bad attention?
 - Write a definition and give examples.

Positive and negative attention

Alfie is live streaming while playing his favourite game. He notices some comments on his stream. Can you help him decide if these are examples of positive attention or negative attention?

	Positive attention	Negative attention
Ellie comments saying that Alfie is really funny and she likes watching him gaming
Someone has sent Alfie 20 messages saying he has to live stream and play games with him
One of Alfie's friends comments to tell people how Alfie helpful was when he was trying to get to the next level in the game
Someone in Alfie's class keeps offering him lots of emojis and gifts in return for his password
One of the Popcorn Wizards comments asking him to make fun of their teacher on his live stream. They tell him it will get more people to watch him
Alfie's mum comments to say how confident he is when live streaming

Provide a reason to support your answer.

Activity 2: Being Respectful.

- What does be respectful mean?
- How do you show you are being respectful?
- It is just as important to show respect online as it is to do so in real life. Just like in real life, there are consequences of you not being respectful online.
- Create a poster to demonstrate how to be respectful online. Here is an example:
 - Responsible
 - Encourage others to be kind
 - Stay positive
 - Politeness
 - Embrace equality
 - Consider your actions
 - Think before you post
