Dear families,

I hope this letter finds you well. Following on from previous communication please find below details of the of the public family consultations regarding the revised Relationship, Sex and Health Education curriculum.

For all schools that have opted to be a part of the Local Council led consultation, you will see your school is included within the list of dates attached.

Relationship, Sex and Health Education - Wave 1 Parent Consultations

Your school community will be invited to attend a virtual public meeting with Danielle Vorley and Colin Stewart. You will have the opportunity to view draft documents in advance of this meeting, you will have the opportunity to ask questions, share feedback or leave commentary via a link below in advance of the meeting. As the meeting progresses a chat feature to submit comments and questions will also be enabled. We will also set some time aside to discuss what RSHE is and how the changes within the curriculum may impact upon your child.

The commentary from families will be responded to in due course if not addressed in the meeting and considered for changes to the draft documents. We are sharing with you the 2nd draft version but anticipate that we will reach a 3rd or 4th draft before developing the final draft following consultations and feedback from the community.

Step 1

Please use this link to the Redbridge FiND website to view the 2nd draft of the key documents;

- ✓ Primary Model Policy
- ✓ Primary syllabus
- ✓ Secondary Model Policy
- ✓ Secondary syllabus

Relationship, Sex and Health Education - Wave 2 Parent Consultations

Following the Wave 1 meetings, you will receive communication from your school detailing dates for a Wave 2 meeting.

It is at the Wave 2 meeting that you will have an opportunity to view some of the teaching resources your school plans to use and to discuss your schools approach to teaching RSHE.

Kind regards,
Danielle Vorley
