15th December 2020

Dear Parents and Carers

It is widely known that the infection rates in London boroughs, have spiked significantly, in recent weeks. In Redbridge, many children are self-isolating and, indeed, both our schools have been affected this term.

Putting the safety of our young children first is our shared priority and we believe that Parkhill have managed the risks with logic, steely determination and tenacity. This is why we have decided to move to online learning for the remainder of this week. To protect you and your children.

From Wednesday 16th December 2020, children will be expected to access online learning from home. From this date, school will remain open to key worker children, vulnerable children and to children on EHC plans, only. Details for remote learning will be sent in a separate letter from each school.

School will operate as usual today, therefore there is no need to collect your child other than at the normal time. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your child's school.

We take this opportunity to thank you for your support and words of kindness during the past term and year.
