Dear Parents and Carers,

On Tuesday 23rd March, the Marie Curie charity is leading a 'National Day of Reflection'. This will take place on the first anniversary of the first UK lockdown as an opportunity to reflect on our collective loss, support for those who have been bereaved, and a hope for a brighter future.

We will be joining a minute of silence at 12:00pm to take a moment to reflect on this unprecedented loss we have faced and continue to face, and to support each other through grief. If you would like to get involved at home, the Marie Curie charity are asking people to 'shine a light' at 8:00pm and take a moment to reflect on the last year.

Further information can be found at the following website:

Enjoy Learning,
