Dear Parents and Carers,

Parkhill is pleased to inform you we will be celebrating World Culture Day! This global celebration, created by the UN, highlights the importance of celebrating each other's cultures and, as a rights respecting school, is a day we are very much looking forward to celebrating.

On Friday 21st May, we are asking the children to come to school dressed in a representation of their culture; colours, traditional dress; the brighter the better! The children will be also given a chance to talk about their clothes and the importance of them with their class. As a Gold Level Rights Respecting school, World Culture Day highlights our core values of diversity, tolerance and acceptance.

We look forward to seeing the children in their wonderful outfits!

Enjoy learning!
